Halal Policy

SINA GERARD/ENTREPRISE URWIBUTSO is fully committed to produce and serve Halalan Toyyiban sunflower and olive oil chilli pepper, branded as Akabanga to all our customers continuously and consistently. Our internal Halal Policy serves as our corporate pledge and commitment towards fully implementing the Halal Certification requirements and compliances.

Policy Statement

We are committed to produce and serve “Halalan Toyyiban ” products (Akabanga sunflower oil chili pepper and Akabanga olive oil chili pepper) that strictly comply with statutory and regulatory requirements. The policy is to ensure the implementation of our Internal Halal Assurance System (HAS), as well as the strategy to create, operate, and maintain a systematic halal control management system in the company.

In pursuit of this commitment, the top management shall ensure that this internal Halal Policy is subjected to continuous review and revision particularly when changes to legislation, regulatory or technical knowledge occur and always adopt industry's best practices.

The top management accepts its responsibility to maintain a smooth communication with internal and external interested parties about all necessary requirements related to effective implementation of Halal Certification requirements and will provide adequate resources to continually improve the highly standardized halal practices as well as customer satisfaction.
